Certificate IV in Entrepreneurship and New Business

A range of opportunities exists across all facets of the small business sector for people with broad business, management and entrepreneurial skills.

This nationally recognised qualification reflects the role of individuals who use well-developed skills and a broad knowledge base in a variety of small business contexts. They apply solutions to a defined range of unpredictable problems and analyse and evaluate information from a variety of sources.

Typically, at this level, they may provide leadership and guidance to others and have responsibility for the output of others.

The Certificate IV in New Small Business offered by ANIBT will enable you to achieve what you've always wanted to in the new business environment and will equip you with the skills and knowledge to be able to own, manage or both any new business.

If you have entrepreneurial flair and experience and are looking to formalise your qualifications and skills, this will be an ideal qualification to undertake.

The Certificate IV in New Small Business qualification offered by ANIBT is made up of 10 units of competency. These consist of 4 core units and 6 elective units* are:

Entry Requirements

It is highly recommended that students are currently in a workplace or have access to a workplace for this course.

For Certificate IV level courses, the recommended minimum level of education is Higher School Certificate or equivalent or relevant qualification (at Certificate III or above) or relevant vocational experience.

In addition, students may enter the qualification through a number of entry points demonstrating the potential to undertake vocational education and training at Certificate IV level including:

- with personal or vocational experience in a specific industry;
- with vocational experience in a specific industry and an industry-specific qualification.

Entry Requirements for International Students

Following are the language literacy requirements for this course:

1. Having arrived at an admission decision, the English language skills (language and literacy) will be assessed. If the student has a satisfactory IELTS score of 6 or the equivalent, the applicant will be admitted to his/her chosen course.
2. If an applicant cannot produce a satisfactory IELTS score, and there are doubts about English language skills to cope in an academic environment, the applicant is advised to enrol in an English (ELICOS) course at an approved provider for an appropriate duration until the student achieves an IELTS score of 6 or the equivalent.
3. In a situation where the student can demonstrate that he or she can communicate in English but cannot produce any formal English qualification as described above, then the student will be required to complete an IELTS test or equivalent in Australia

It is highly recommended that students are currently in a workplace or have access to a workplace for this course.

The Australian government publishes rules for English language proficiency for international students applying for entry to vocational training. You should establish your country's assessment level by reading the DHA rules at www.homeaffairs.gov.au. Be aware that the rules are subject to change from time to time.

ANIBT also accepts completion of a recognised equivalent English preparation course from an accredited ELICOS provider. Admission may be approved if the language of instruction in the student's home country is English or if English has been the language spoken in the student's home.

Overseas students who do not provide a satisfactory score from an English test recognised by DHA will be interviewed to ascertain their language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) skills and must have to do an LLN test at ANIBT.

Course Completion

Upon successful completion of this course, you will receive a nationally recognised qualification BSB40320 Certificate IV in Entrepreneurship and New Business issued by the Australian National Institute of Business and Technology Pty Ltd (ANIBT).

The Australian National Institute of Business and Technology Pty Ltd is a Registered Training Organisation (Provider number: 21368) registered with the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA).
